

"Let the LORD Arise"

You know what?

Let God our father be glorified, and then all your enemies shall scatter from you.

(Tumpe Mungu baba yetu utukufu wake, na kisha maadui zako wote watakukimbia.)

It's what he promised

Psalm 68:1

Let God arise, let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee before him.

Let his (God's enemies) be scattered:

But who are God's enemies?

Exodus 23:22 ...then I will be an enemy to your enemies, and I will oppose those who oppose you.

God says in this verse. "I WILL MAKE YOUR ENEMIES, MY ENEMIES."

Enemies can also be explained as: a thing that harms or weakens something (that weakens you). Worries, Anxiety, Stress, Debts, Relationship challenges, and other's I have not mentioned.

all these are enemies, yet God our Father says...

He wants to defend us, and solve the troubles we face. Because of his love for us.

What does this verse (Psalms 35:27) encourage us to say?

"Lord our God be magnified, Father God, you enjoy to see us flourish, in every area of our lives. Be magnified."

In fact read the verses then, speak all these words in the quotation marks (" ")

Psalms 30:12

"I will not silence myself from giving you praise."

Psalms 63:2 So I look at You in the sanctuary (a place in the temple where God's glory can be seen. 2 Corinthians 7:2-3) to see Your strength and your glory.

So I look at you...to see...your glory

Psalms 63:3 Because Your lovingkindness is (not back in the old testament times, now) is better than life (better than enjoying the pleasures of life), My lips shall praise You (shall praise God the Father.)

Loving kindness means: mercy, and mercy means compassion shown towards some one undeserving.

"the person showing compassion rarely expects to receive the same treatment or to get something in return. In all its essence, compassion is empathy in action."

(From: Positivepsychology.com)

This is who God is, Psalms 145:8.

"Father your compassion is better than any enjoyment life has to offer."

John 3:27 John answered and said, no one can receive anything, except God give's him.

No one can speak the words of God, except God gives him the words!