

The one who serves

Don't look for God's gifts so that you can boast (usitafute vipawa vya mungu ili ujitape.)

Matthew 20

27 And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant:

(Tip, if you find king James Bible Translation complex try using New Living Translation Bible, which uses simpler English.)

The greatest among all, is the servant to all 😊...

It's not about the position, if you want the gifts of God, it means you want power from God to benefit millions of people through Jesus.

Matthew 20:28 For even Jesus did not come to earth to be served (Yesu hakuja kutumikiwa) but to serve others (ila kutumikia wengi)...

Jesus says, when I came to earth, I came to be your servant. He is still lord above all, and powerful than all, but he uses his power and authority to serve you.

If God positions you in authority, serve those under you. And God himself says in Acts 20:35

It is more blessed to give than to receive.

But when you come to Jesus be humble and listen to him, not to man, if a preacher is preaching about himself and his good qualities, move out, listen to preaching about Jesus.

2 Corinthians 4:5 we do not preach about ourselves, but about Jesus Christ the Lord; and we are your servants for Jesus' sake.
